

Fort d'Auvergne

Hotel

ST. HELIER, JERSEY

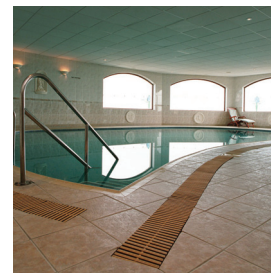

The Fort d'Auvergne Hotel is bordered by the sea and sandy beach on two sides and occupies what is one of the best maritime positions in Jersey's capital, St Helier.

The hotel itself is traditional in style but offers modern amenities including its air conditioned seafront table d'hote restaurant and an outstanding luxury indoor pool complex with unrivalled views over the bay. There is only a pedestrian promenade separating the hotel and the sea shore.

Hotel standards are maintained at the high levels expected within the local family owned and operated Morvan Hotels group, so offering you a quality stay whether taking a short break in Jersey or for that special holiday.

The hotel offers 65 comfortable en-suite guest bedrooms. Sea/beach view bedrooms are available as well as a number of balcony bedrooms all with superb views of the coastline.

We are unique in our locality in also providing a large private seafront sun terrace area for the exclusive enjoyment of resident guests.

Another superb feature of the hotel, open all day, is the 'Promenade Bar', exclusively for hotel residents, with full views over the beach and sea, making a sociable venue for guests each evening or the perfect place for a mid morning coffee. Here, bar snacks are available each lunchtime and light entertainment is offered on certain nights, May to September inclusive.

Due to the hotel's unique location there are no on site car parking facilities but a quality local bus service operates from outside of the hotel.
